ICANN's mission

- To be a champion of the single, open, and globally interoperable Internet, (this relates to the fundamental nature of the internet)
- To be the independent, trusted, multistakeholder steward of the Internet's unique identifiers (the technical and policy side of ICANN)
- To provide an open and collaborative environment where diverse stakeholders come together in the global public interest.

ICANN'S Public Interest Strategies

- By strengthening their bottom-up multistakeholder decision-making process and making sure that “effective and timely decisions are made in the global public interest”
- By supporting and growing active, informed and effective stakeholder participation which is committed to “cooperative towards a global public interest”
- By prioritising its activities to deliver its mission in the public interest in the most cost effective way.
